'Take nothing for granted,' Fields campaign advice

by LISA WILKIE

Win, lose or draw, what could be better than a learning experience? According to Antioch Township supervisor Jim Fields, the things that he and his campaigners have learned during his quest for District 4 County Board representative, are more than beneficial. "We'll be doing it again!" he stated.

No matter the outcome of the March 18 primary election, or the November general election, Fields will be up for re-election as township supervisor next year, and he plans on running again for the county board seat after the redistricting in Lake County in two years. All this has the looks of a busy next few years for Fields. "We've all learned so much about campaigning, and I know much more of what to do the next time campaigning rolls around."

WHAT FIELDS intends to do, is to become a little more familiar with areas other than just Antioch. "It's important to get to know people other than Antioch residents," stated Gail, one of Fields' hard-working, campaigners who just happens to be his wife.

"Looking back over the whole thing, you realize what you could have done differently or better," Mrs. Fields said.

"Just look at the ballot," she added. "His name reads 'Jim Fields' while other names are more formal, like 'Norman C. Geary'. We just took it for granted that everyone would know him as Jim."

It is little things like that, that the average person doesn't realize goes into the plotting of a campaign. "I was so naive about this whole thing, that I thought I could organize the whole thing and make appearances all by myself," Fields said. He pointed out that he enlisted in the help of many friends, some of whom were as new to campaigning as he himself. "We learned together," he said.

THE FIELDS', who are in the midst of remodeling the most used room in their home, the kitchen, have not had a chance to see each other all that much. "Things have been real hectic," Mrs. Fields said over her birthday lunch, probably the only time the Fields would be together that day.

In summing up where his campaigning has been most beneficial, Fields pointed to Antioch and Grant Townships. He also said that he's gotten good reception in most townships except Wauconda. "The result of the county board race is going to depend on where people put their second vote," Fields said.

Fields has faced a few obstacles in the District 4 race, one of them his being relatively unknown in places other than Antioch. "I'm sure I'm becoming more of a familiar face," he said. All the better for next time around.

HE HAS ALSO been paired with Donna-Mae Litwiler, which some see as a benefit. "She certainly hasn't hurt my case any," Fields said. Some see the pairing as over-representation of the Antioch-Grant area. "I'm not running to represent Antioch, I'm running to represent district 4."

With an estimate of over 30 campaigners working for Fields, his name has gotten around. No matter what the results are of the primary election, Fields, his wife and the campaigners, have learned one thing: "Take nothing for granted," Fields said.

Rough crossings to be smoothed

Village trustee Bill Seemann raised questions about the Soo Line Railroad warning signals at the Depot St. and North Ave. crossings at the Antioch Village Board meeting March 17. "The lights at those crossings are very inconsistent," he noted. "They don't flash when there is a train coming, yet they do when there isn't," he added. Mayor Michael Haley instructed police evidence to be gathered at times when near accidents have been reported to use in gaining action by the railroad.

The rough crossings on both North Ave. and Rte. 83 were also discussed, and according to Supt. of Public Works Walt Shepard, officials from the railroad have said that the crossings are due for repair this summer. "They said that there would be someone to do some patching in those areas in the near future," Shepard said.

THE VILLAGE BOARD voted to authorize the advertising for bids for two new police cars and a smaller car for the fire chief. According to Haley, the need for a smaller car was instigated by the fuel crunch.

The board also voted to authorize payment of engineering services for the new well station number five. The village will also be paying an additional $1,147 for the study being done by Donahue and Assoc. of the sewer system in Antioch.

In other action, the board authorized the payment of $1,121 to the Lake County Planning and Zoning Commission for their assistance with the village's commission. According to Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz, the county sends a representative to each of the village's planning meetings to assist their planning.

The board also agreed to absorb the 25 cent increase in fare for senior citizens riding in Antioch taxi.

Trustee Mabel Lou Weber announced that both Antioch and Lake Villa officials will be meeting with Lake County CATV on March 25 at the village hall for the discussion of cable tv in the immediate area.

IN A PRESENTATION showing appreciation to the village of Antioch, members of the Antioch High School varsity football team presented the mayor and trustees with a plaque picturing the 1979-80 football team. Team members Tim Plett, Jim Mancuso, and Denis Flacshner, along with their coach Steve Wapon and high school Supt. Warren

Police arrest young men

Three Wisconsin men were arrested by Antioch Police for attempted robbery of the Antioch Pizza, on Rte. 59, on March 12.

Officer William Kukla and Robert Lang observed a black pickup truck drive from the back of the store at 1:30 a.m., and upon further investigation, discovered two subjects at the back entrance.

According to Lt. Thomas Fisher, a panel had been knocked out of the rear door, but entry was not gained to the building.

One subject, Robert Sanderson, 19, of Wilmot, left on foot while Jeffery Koch, 18, of Wilmot was arrested on the scene.

Sanderson was later apprehended at the Ace Hardware store at Rtes. 173 and 59, along with the driver of the truck, Charles Anderson, 19, of Trevor, who had earlier left the scene. Police also recovered a mallet, which according to Fisher, had been used to break the door.

All three men were charged with attempted burglary while Anderson was also charged with transporting open alcohol in a vehicle.

A preliminary hearing has been set for March 20 at 1:30 p.m. at the Lake County Courthouse in Waukegan.

Candidates go to 'poles'

Ever wonder who cleans up after the election? The biggest clean-up is not the throwing away of empty campaign bottles or the sweeping of confetti thrown when the final vote comes over the wire at victory parties. Nor is it the disposal of empty sandwich wrappers left on the courthouse floor by the media as stories from outlying precincts are transmitted to home offices as results come in. The biggest clean-up comes at the poles.

Utility and telephone poles are used illegally during the election, with signs posted on them to draw passers-by attention to the candidates. Committee people tack posters up, and in some instances, the polls end up looking like, well, the ballot itself.

EVEN THOUGH it may seem amusing that two days before the election that the wood of the pole near eye level is not even visible, it is actually quite a serious matter.

"No one cleans up after the election is over with," Joseph Scheuerman, Commonwealth Edison district manager said of the many posters tacked up all over the county. "People may think they are cleaning up by just taking the signs down, but actually they are leaving the most hazardous thing in the pole," he added.

It is true that many campaigners remove signs, but they leave the tack or the nail stuck in the pole. "The signs are not only an eyesore, but if the nails are left in the poles, linemen face potential injuries when they are making repairs," Scheuerman stated.

SCHEUERMAN pointed out that linemen may slip when the spikes in their shoes hit hardware left on the poles. "A repairman may fall all the way down the pole if their shoe hits one of those. They also can hurt their hands," he stated.

"Also, the poster and its fastener can delay repair work during bad weather," he added.

Villages do have ordinances against the tacking of posters, and there are state highway regulations against the posting of signs, and permission can be granted to post materials on signs, yet campaigners go unchecked for the most part. "Under no circumstances would we grant permission to tack things on poles. People just have little regard for private property these days," Scheuerman stated.

Trust exec to address chamber

Paul Pavelski, president of the newly formed Antioch Trust Co., will address Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry members at the next general membership meeting to be held in April.

Pavelski will not discuss industrial trends, as was reported last week, but will discuss trusts.

At the Chamber's Industrial Recognition Committee meeting, Chamber president Dan Dugenske, State Bank of Antioch president Bill Brook, Bob Taubitz of Regal China, Art Neckermann of Valiant Enterprises and Gib Petzke of Quaker Industries decided on a June general membership meeting with topics of interest for retail business and industry alike.

The June program will feature information on the Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA), employment opportunities in local industry, as well as regulations concerning unemployment compensation.

Youngster dies in accident

Four-year-old Stephanie Diane Lasco died in an accident near Wrightstown, Wis. March 7.

Funeral services were held March 10 at the United Church of Christ in Kaukauna, Wis. with the Rev. Harvey L. Kandler officiating. Visitation was held at Greenwood Funeral Home.

Survivors include parents Dan and Betty Lasco, sister Heather and brother Jim Cuzydoo, all of Greenleaf; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Liddle and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lasco all of Antioch; seven aunts and uncles and a godmother.

Seniors still need driver

The Chain of Lakes Senior Services is in dire need of a part-time driver. Hours available to work are 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. For Meals on Wheels program. Position involves an hourly salary, plus gas allowance.

A driver is urgently needed if the meals on wheels program is to continue.

This is an ideal situation for someone who likes to work a few hours a day.

Contact Birnida Johnson at 395-5161 or 395-5162 for more information.

PTO sets goals

The first meeting of the new Antioch Lower Grade School PTO was held March 12.

President Carol Jester called upon committee chairmen who gave reports on what they hope to accomplish during their time of office.

The meeting was well attended and those present were entertained by a female barber shop quartette called, The Sound Relations.

An excellent variety of desserts was served, thanks to the efforts of the hospitality committee.

The next scheduled meeting will be at 7:30 p.m., May 13 and the program will have school children demonstrating their abilities.

ARREST

Antioch Police Officer Ron Roth arrested a McHenry man and charged him with drunk driving and illegal transportation of liquor on March 22. Roth reportedly observed Leonard A. Schmidt, 37, slumped over the wheel of his vehicle as it blocked traffic on Main St. in Antioch at 8:17 a.m. Two bottles of partially consumed whiskey were found in the Schmidt auto. Court date is set for April 3.

AT 'POLES' — It is illegal to use utility poles in this matter, yet candidates and their campaigners go virtually unchecked throughout voting season. According to Commonwealth Edison spokesman Joseph Scheuerman, this clutter creates not only an eyesore, but also a hazard to linemen. Passing motorists could create an accident should they try to check ballot in this case, and perhaps someday when voters are instructed to go to polls, they will do just that. — Photo by Lisa Wilkie.

County still urges one land plan

In further effort to gain support for a comprehensive land use plan, the Lake County Dept. of Planning Zoning and Environmental Quality, represented by quality director Lane Kendig and associate planner Mary Otting, met with Antioch residents March 11 in the second in a series of meetings seeking input on development ideas.

Through a slide presentation, Kendig urged residents to think about decisions in regard to development that will have to be made in Antioch and throughout the county in the next few years.

Kendig pointed out that it is essential to look to the future and what kind of development it will bring. "When building was at its peak, there was an average of six zoning change requests per month," he said. "Now there aren't many requests."

He also pointed out that to avoid mistakes that were made in the past in zoning, that "residents have to take a look at what they want the community to look like."

To do that, Kendig said that hypothetical areas have to be set up, and areas must be set aside for the growth in the community. Through the slides, different plans of residential, suburban and urban areas were shown.

"Ordinances can make the community," Kendig stated. "There needs to be wise use of open space."

The commission will be meeting again next month with the residents of Antioch Township, and urge response throughout the development of the project of initiating a comprehensive land use plan in Lake County.

Well, Shep at the water treatment plant got his wish last week, when Schwartz Nursery delivered two swans to compliment the over 100 ducks that have gathered over the years at the treatment plant. The pair of swans, donated by the nursery, will look so nice out there — spicing up the atmosphere a little. According to Walt, they seem to have the rule of the roost, so far. Also according to Walt, the cost of keeping the ducks fed will not run the taxpayer's bill up any. "They eat just the same as the ducks do," Walt said. No matter what, it's a great addition to the plant, just like the new computerized lift station checks, I've heard are in the works, will be.

Guess there was a great deal of fun at the 4 Squires last Thursday. The Siegmeiers hosted friends, a few customers and employees at a little fashion show. The closed-door get-together showed fashions both male and female, and it was noted that one male modeling bathing trunks came dancing in front of guests wearing a poster of Bo Derek attached to the front of his suit. Heard this gentleman from downstate got a lot of applause. Over 300 guests enjoyed refreshments at the event.

Old St. Pat's celebration was lots of fun at the Night Watchman on Rte. 173. Guess they had a rip-roarin' turnout on the 17th with free beer and lots of eats. Wonder if the Blarney Stone was showered with kisses?

Congratulations to the Antioch High School girls varsity team that defeated the Grant Bulldogs last week. They will be playing in North Chicago in sectional action against Buffalo Grove. Good luck girls and coach Loreen!

And finally, can't wait to talk to Jimmy Fields later on tonight as I imagine there will be some celebrating going on. Sure hope nobody lost any bets in this hotly contested District 4 GOP nomination race. That goes for you, Haley...I'm not naming first names...you know who you are!

Heard the chickens did their thing at the Antioch High School Jazz Ensemble performance last weekend. They wiggled their tail feathers and clucked to "In the Mood" as a 'captive' audience 'flapped' with approval. Still one more weekend to see that performance...well worth the chicken feed to get in.

Classroom switch at Emmons

John Kakacek announced that the Emmons Grade School Board decided at its last meeting, that graduation would be scheduled for May 30, and that the last day of school would be June 3, provided that there were no more snow days.

In other business, the board decided that the special education classroom and learning center would be switched. "The classroom will be regular size," Kakacek said.

The board also approved bussing for athletes to athletic events for the 1981 school year. "Parents have always taken the kids to events, and this will help out," Kakacek said.

The school was also authorized to purchase new mimeograph equipment, and the board will also send representatives to the April 30 dinner to be held at the Antioch High School for a 11 the school boards that feed into that school.

will net the winner a scholarship to further her education. According to Bill Groeninger, co-chairman of the event, the committee is still seeking sponsors. A donation of $125 can be given by a business wishing to sponsor. To date sponsors include the State Bank of Antioch, the First National Bank of Antioch, Main Secretarial, Real Estate Store of Lake County, Teresi Chevy-Olds Inc., Thelen Sand and Gravel, and Deep Lake Hermitage. Anyone wishing to become a sponsor can phone Mr. Groeninger at 395-2700.

The pageant will be held on Saturday, March 29 at the Antioch High School.

Other noteworthy events coming up are the dinner-dance in honor of Antioch's VIP Lee Ipsen. This will be held on March 22 beginning at 6:30 p.m. with cocktails, at the St. Peter's Social Center. Music will be provided by the Manhattan Skyline and tickets are $10 available through St. Peter's Rectory. Proceeds from the event will go to St. Peter's.

The Antioch Women's Club will be hosting a dessert-card party on Monday, March 24 beginning at 12:30 p.m. Tickets for that event are $2, and it will be held at Harbor Ridge Country Club. Both men and women are invited to attend, and proceeds from the event will go toward the scholarship that the club distributes every year.

Also coming up will be the annual Emmons Grade School PTO fashion show to be held April 24 at Crescent Bay Landing in McHenry. The show will feature present fashions, along with a look to the past.

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry Retail Committee will be sponsoring an Easter Egg Hunt with area merchants. More news on that later when Chairperson LoAl will have more details.

A good time was had by all who attended the Oakwood Knolls Homeowners spring dinner-dance. Must have been about 250 there enjoying dinner, drinks and music. Heard Mabel Lou Weber kind of cleaned up with the door prizes...

Township ok's school

The Antioch Township Board, at its March 13 meeting, authorized Marilyn Slater and Margaret Vos to attend a two-day workshop in Chicago to update their knowledge on assessing. "They will be working toward becoming a full assessor," current Antioch assessor Bud Holtz said. "The board is more than happy to see them get this training as they deal with assessing."

Both Ms. Slater and Ms. Vos currently work at the township office. Slater is Township Supervisor Jim Fields' secretary, while Vos is a clerk.

The township is still awaiting a county position on what can be done to the roads in the Heart of Lakes subdivision where the residents are having flood problems. According to Bud Holtz, there was again informal discussion on that continuing problem.

Immunizations urged

The Lake County Health Dept. is strongly encouraging measles immunizations for non-immunized children at 15 months of age or older at this time. It is particularly important for children attending day care centers or preschools to be immunized.

If the family does not have a private physician, parents may obtain immunizations for their children at the Lake County Health Department. The health department offers immunizations not only against measles, but also against mumps, rubella (German Measles), polio, diphtheria, whooping cough, and tetanus (D.P.T.), at no charge. No appointment is necessary at the following locations unless noted otherwise.

Think back. It hasn't been that long ago.

Pennsylvania looked like it might be blown off the map any minute, turned into a radioactive no-man's-land forever. "Permanently uninhabitable" was the way they said it in the movie, The China Syndrome.

That's the trouble. A lot of people said a lot of things. And a lot of it just wasn't true. Not even close.

Take the hydrogen bubble that made all the headlines. Bubble, nothing. The implication was time bomb, ticking away. And that would've frightened anybody who didn't have a degree in chemistry.

The fact is, that bubble couldn't explode. Not by any stretch of the imagination.

To understand why, you have to understand how the hydrogen got there in the first place. And that takes some understanding of how the reactor at Three Mile Island was designed to work.

It's the pressurized-water type, meaning the fuel core was cooled by keeping it submerged in water. H₂O. Hydrogen and oxygen. Heated by the core to more than 550 degrees, well beyond the boiling point.

What kept it from boiling was pressure, approximately 2,000 pounds worth. But on March 28th, last year, a relief valve on the pressurizer stuck open, the pressure dropped, and the water—the H₂O—inside the reactor boiled into steam.

When that happened, the zirconium-alloy tubes housing the fuel underwent a chemical reaction. A kind of accelerated rusting that combined the zirconium from the tubes with oxygen from the water to form zirconium oxide.

That's important, because with all the oxygen used up by the chemical reaction, the only part of the water left was hydrogen. The bubble. And what nobody bothered to tell you at the time was that without oxygen, hydrogen can't explode.

On May 1st, more than a month later, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission admitted the scare was all a mistake. Roger Mattson, Director of its Systems Safety Division, told a congressional committee there "never was any danger of a hydrogen explosion in that bubble."

That never made headlines.

And more than likely, neither will the fact that even if there had been a meltdown, it wouldn't have spelled disaster for Pennsylvania. It couldn't have.

First of all, the fuel core in the reactor vessel was surrounded by a containment building. Not just any building, an immense fortress with an enormously thick floor. Eleven feet of solid concrete reinforced with steel.

Second, for a molten mass to eat through it, that concrete-and-steel floor couldn't be covered with water. But water is what's used to cool the core. And when the relief valve on the pressurizer stuck open, sending several hundred thousand gallons shooting out, the law of gravity gave it only one place to go.

Down to the floor, right under the reactor vessel. Right in the path a molten mass would take.

That's the fallacy of the meltdown theory. In spite of the overwhelming odds against it, if all systems failed, if the entire core melted, if it got through the foot-thick steel reactor vessel in one piece and dropped to the floor below, it would've been stopped right there. Cooled by an ocean of water inside the containment building, not 20 feet from where the meltdown started.

As for any sudden burst of steam-pressure that might be released when the molten mass hits the water, it wouldn't be nearly powerful enough to rupture the walls of the building. Walls capable of withstanding almost twice as much force.

In other words, there was no way for significant radioactivity to reach the atmosphere outside.

The point of it all is that Three Mile Island and nuclear power itself deserve a fairer shake. A second look minus the hysteria, the hyperbole, the half-truths, and the untruths. They deserve a close, careful reading of the facts.

True, we've experienced the worst accident in the 22 years America has been using nuclear energy to produce electricity. But it wasn't the apocalypse. No one died. And except for the stress of being scared stiff, no one was injured. Despite the equipment failures and failures in judgment, despite everything that went wrong, the safety systems worked.

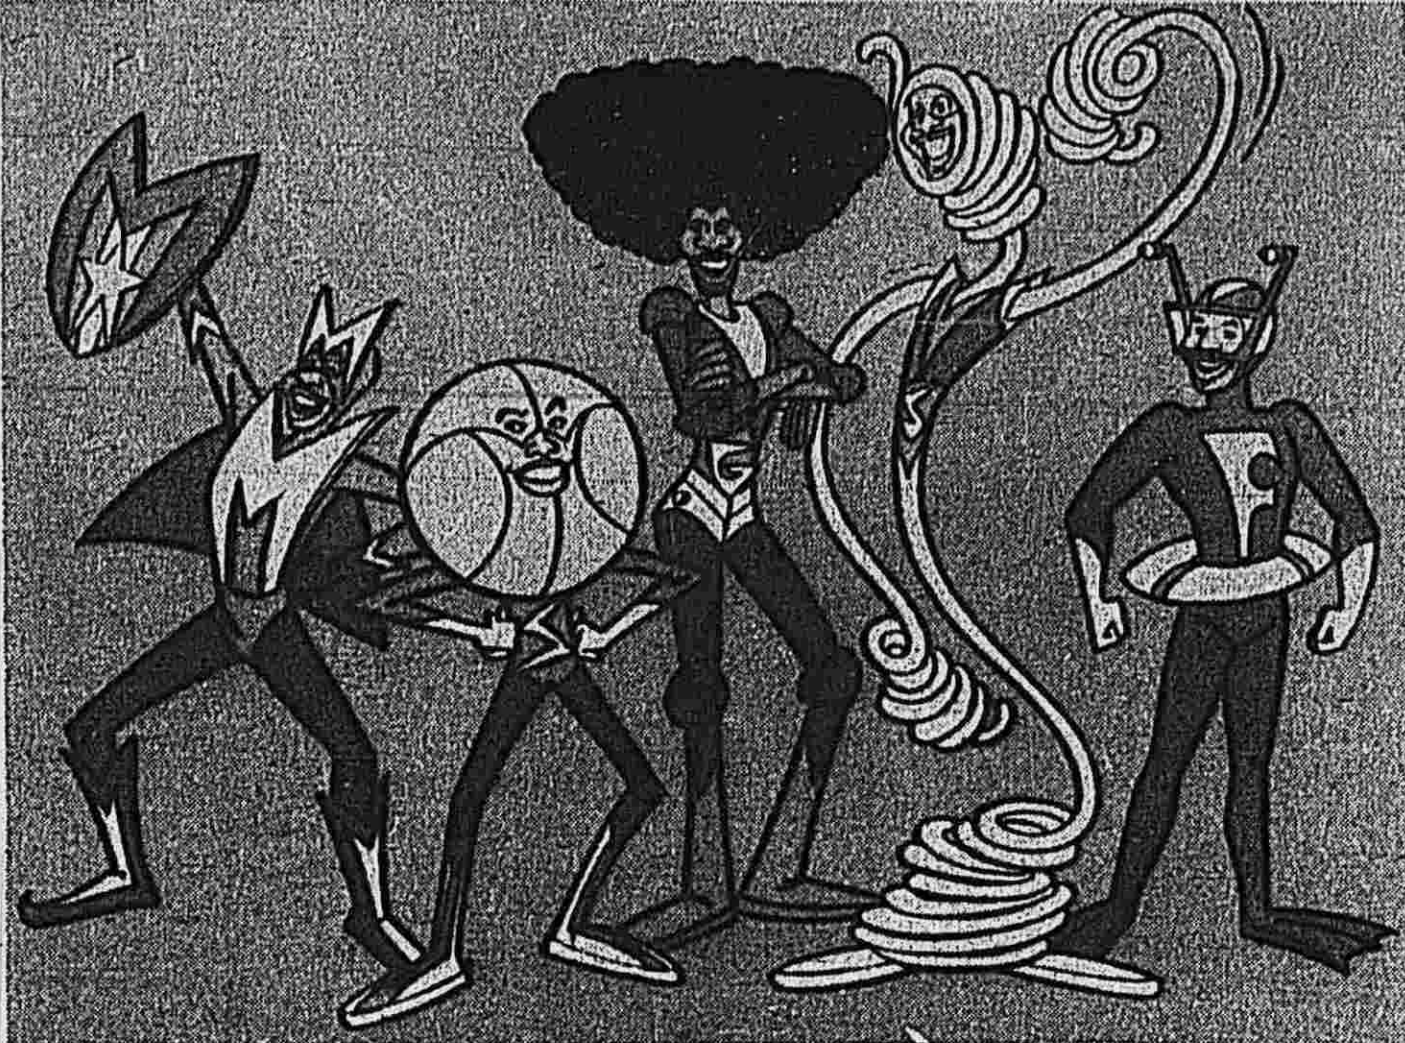

What really exploded were myths.

Varsity girls defeat Grant

The Antioch High School Varsity Sequoit Girls basketball team advances to sectional play at North Chicago High School on March 18, where they will face Buffalo Grove, by virtue of a win over the Grant Bulldogs. The Sequoits claimed the regional championship in the 44-37 win at Antioch High on March 13.

The girls, now 16-7 in overall play, played with more enthusiasm than ever, according to Coach Loreen Dresser. "We led from the beginning, stole the ball twice in the very beginning of play, and cashed in on those steals," the coach said.

The girls playing before an equally enthusiastic crowd, were able to make Grant star Stephanie Romic foul out at the beginning of the fourth quarter. "We stalled with four minutes to go, and the Bulldogs had to come after the ball," Dresser said. "The girls were really self-motivated and played aggressive basketball," she added.

Antioch shot 41 percent from the floor while Grant shot 32. Tracy Manuel, who has averaged 20 points per game for the Sequoits had 18, while sophomore Suzanne Fritz came off the JV bench to score 10. Guard Kathy Oddsen scored nine.

Leading the Sequoits in rebounding were Oddsen and Manuel with 10 apiece.

Dresser expects a not-too-tall, yet quick game in North Chicago. "We've never seen the Buffalo Grove team, but they are quick," she said.

OUTSTANDING — Antioch Varsity girls left, Kathy Oddsen and Tracy Manuel have been chosen to the all-county team. Oddsen, a 6-0, Antioch senior, scored 142 points on the season while grabbing 148 rebounds for Sequoits, who are bound for sectional play in North Chicago. Manuel, a 5-10, Lindenhurst sophomore, has grabbed an outstanding 238 rebounds while being Sequoit lead scorer with 349 points on the season. Both girls play center-forward position. Manuel had been named all-county as well as all-conference last year. Both hope to continue careers playing college ball. — Photo by Lisa Wilkie.

Officer slightly injured

Antioch Police Officer Wally Mitchell was slightly injured after his squad car was struck by an auto he was en route to a police call on March 13.

The officer's car was east-bound on North Ave. passing through the intersection of Rte. 83 when it was struck by a car driven by Scott Bean, 21, of Libertyville.

The Bean auto allegedly passed a car already stopped at the intersection before hitting the Antioch squad in the left rear passenger side.

Bean was charged with failure to yield to an emergency vehicle and no valid driver's license.

Eight upper grade grapplers grab for state

On March 14-15, the Antioch Upper Grade School wrestling Apaches competed in their sectional tournament at Barrington, High School. The first three place winners from this tournament advance to the state finals, to be held at Decatur, on March 21-22.

Antioch had 8 of 16 entries in the sectional qualify for state. The team placed second in the 19 team field with 160 points. The Barrington Bronco wrestling club placed first with 175 points. Shady Lane School of Fox Lake placed third with 105 points.

Coaches Ken Anderson and Steve Alberts, of the upper grade, were extremely pleased with the boys performance and are optimistic about the state finals next week.

Those boys placing first were: Ed Silva, 135 pounds, Andy Lehn, 145 pounds, John Mabor, 155 pounds, Frank Mabor, 170 pounds.

Placing second were Ken Sandick, 70 pounds, Steve Case, 111 pounds, and Jeff Gibson, 135 pounds.

Placing third was Jim Geier at heavyweight.

The other boys who competed in the tourney but didn't win a state qualifying place were Rod Volling, fourth; John Edwards, fourth; Mike DeSalvadore, Jim Wais, Dave Lear, Cal Knutson, John Weldin, and Mat McGrain.

The Antioch boys wrestled a fine tournament, and are to be commended on their good sportsmanship, and competitiveness, said Anderson.

50 YEARS AGO: MARCH 13, 1930

The hacked and mutilated bones of the murder victim were found smoking in the ashes of a cottage at Deep Lake by members of the Antioch fire department, who were called to the scene to extinguish the raging flames. Examination of the remains shows the victim to be a blond woman, 20 to 30 years old, 5 foot 5 inches tall, 133 pounds wearing a blue taffeta dress.

Authorities are of the opinion that the girl might have been the victim of Chicago gangsters. They are now looking for Louise Rolfe, the attractive sweetheart of "Machine Gun" Jack McGurn, and who served as his alibi when he was arrested last fall as a suspect in the Moran gang massacre. Since she is known to have possessed many gangland secrets it is believed she might have been murdered to prevent their disclosure.

Marion Miller, reputed sweetheart of Frank McErlane, held as Chicago's cruellest gangster and who was shown while he lay in bed in a Chicago hospital, may also have been the victim. Affairs growing out of the shooting of McErlane are said to have brought about the assassination of "Dingbat" Oberta, and the Miller woman may have been connected with the warfare.

Signifying her desire to take advantage of the opportunity offered to all Gold Star mothers throughout the land, Mrs. Mary Mann, the only woman in Antioch who bears that distinction, received an official invitation from Washington D.C., to join the party of six thousand Gold Star mothers who will sail for France on May 21.

The woman chief of an alleged kidnap torture band which is believed to have extorted half a million dollars in ransom last year was taken into custody Sunday night. The chief witness against her and her six men accomplices is Theodore Kopeland, wealthy businessman and former husband of the accused.

The group was seized when Kopeland informed police of the fact that he had been kidnapped, threatened with a red-hot poker and forced to turn over $4,000 of what was to be a $25,000 ransom in order to secure his release. She was living with a gangster as "Mrs. Myrtle Resnick."

Police recognized "Mrs. Myrtle Gorman Resnick" as the woman who appeared after Chicago's Valentine Day Massacre and claimed the $100,000 found in the safety deposit box of Pete Gusenberg, one of the slain gangsters. She said she was his wife. Kopeland said that she had been Mrs. Myrtle Christine Larson Thorn before she married him. There are more names by this time.

30 YEARS AGO: MARCH 16, 1950

An automobile accidentally started, knocked John Seistrup through a plate glass window at the Feyerabend Studebaker sales room Saturday, breaking his leg. Just who started the car was not revealed.

There will be a new location for the Antioch post office before long, Postmaster Roy Kufalk said yesterday. Kufalk would not speculate on the possible new location.

Miss Margaret Easton will get an expense-paid vacation trip of one week at Randy's camp at Redditt, Ontario, Canada as the result of her visit at the Outdoor Sports show in Chicago. She is an employee of Pickard, Inc.

Candidates for carnival king and queen of Antioch High School are: Marilyn Bushing, Mary Ellen Campbell, Diana Fox and Mary Ann Quilty; Bernard Haviland, Jack Mahoney, George Swenson and Fred Wolfe. The king and queen will be chosen Friday night and reign at the gay nineties carnival.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents are seeking to establish a connection between the three men who recently robbed the Antioch National Bank and three who robbed the Hamilton National Bank of Washington D.C. It was also a red-haired member of a trio who engaged in the Washington robbery and a black car was used there the same as here. A reward totaling $1,500 is being offered for their capture.

10 YEARS AGO: MARCH 19, 1970

The First National Bank of Antioch opened their doors after hours so that members of the Antioch Concert Band could buy travelers checks for their tour to the eastern coast. The band members bought their checks, but the bank picked up the tab on the charges.

A charter of incorporation has been issued to the Erickson Sewing Center, Inc. 382 Lake St., Antioch.

Kenneth E. Welton, who has been acting superintendent of the Lake County Highway Dept. since the death of Melvin E. Amstutz in early January, has been appointed to a six-year term.

Orville S. (Pat) Clavey led the ticket Tuesday in his bid to become the next sheriff of the county.

Thumb-Sucking Syndrome

Does thumb-sucking lead to crooked teeth? Most experts don't think occasional thumb-sucking in infancy causes any problems with teeth. But there is a general agreement among dentists that prolonged and intensive thumb-sucking past the time of first permanent teeth erupt - at 5 to 6 years of age - can lead to misshapen mouths and displaced teeth.

Actually, the position of individual teeth displaced by thumb-sucking is of less concern to orthodontists than the effect on the bony support of the teeth - and the development of abnormal, deforming muscle activity. If, for example, the habit persists past two years, it could alter the child's swallowing pattern. Once this happens, the youngster may develop a protrusion of the upper front teeth; a narrowness of the upper dental arch; and an obvious malocclusion (improper bite) problem.

As long as there are infants, there will be thumb-suckers. However, if the habit continues longer than usual, it's best to have the child checked by a dentist before it causes any problems.

Play ball: Little League registration for all ages

Little League registration for boys and girls interested in playing baseball or softball will take place from 6 to 9 p.m., Friday, March 21, and from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday, March 22, at the Antioch Scout House located on Main St., next to the Antioch library.

Registrations will be conducted the next weekend at the same times and place for those unable to register this weekend.

The fee is $15 per player ($12.50 for additional players in the same family.) A parent should accompany player during signup, as parent's signature is required.

Mike DoBosh, newly elected president of Antioch Little League, announced some major changes in this year's enterprising program. Antioch Little League will also include the girls softball program and tee ball for boys and girls seven and eight years old. Mike noted an increased emphasis on the girls programs and the minor league.

This year's minor league is spearheaded by vice president Andy Proctor. Proctor described the seven and eight year old program as a completely instructional league with emphasis on teaching the fundamentals of Little League baseball.

He also said that the AAA league teams will have new full uniforms molded after the National and American professional team uniforms. Proctor explained that it was quite an investment, but some additional Antioch businesses and merchants who are supporting sponsors have helped to defray the costs.

The seven and eight year olds, Proctor continued, will be provided with uniform shirts and caps this year, and depending on the response, a further outfitting could occur next year.

The Little League program, under vice president Ed Johnson, boasts major improvements to the Little League diamond. The infield has been moved out to allow more spaces along the first and third base lines and behind homeplate. New baseball infield clay dirt mixture has been used to completely resurface the infield, and new sod has been laid on the adjacent areas.

Senior Little League, under vice president Russ Cote, will continue to use the Antioch High School facilities as in the past.

The girls program will feature a fast-pitch softball league for girls age 13 through 15, and a regular softball program for girls age nine through 12. An instructional T-ball program will be offered for boys and girls seven and eight years old. The vice president of the girls league is to be elected at the next regular meeting. DoBosh noted that major emphasis is being given to the girls program in order to institute a competitive league. Several openings for managers and coaches still exist. Anyone interested should contact DoBosh at 356-7310 or Russ Lehn at 356-1603.

Considerable effort is being made by all the Little League, managers, coaches, and officers to make this one of the most successful years for the Antioch area boys and girls and the Little League programs.

Support of Little League fund raisers is critical to the financial success of the program. A new venture this year of selling fine Wisconsin sausage, cheese, and popcorn is being explored. The annual beef award at the end of the season will also be planned for noted Bill Nauman, treasurer.

Umpire scheduling and selection is handled by Dick Witt. Anyone interested in umpiring either boys or girls leagues should contact Witt at 395-0381 or 395-1089. Further information as to try out dates, team selections, etc. will be announced at a later date.

Personnel changes at school

Several personnel changes were made March 11 at the Grass Lake Board of Education meeting.

The board approved two resignations. One was from fifth grade teacher Karen Simon, who is leaving for maternity reasons. The other was from physical education instructor Barbara Cross.

New gym teacher Stephen Bartlett was hired as a replacement.

A staff reduction effort resulted in the honorable discharge of second grade teacher Darlene Clauson. Her dismissal is effective this June.

Jaycee sponsoring blood drive to benefit Antioch

The Antioch Jaycees are trying to accomplish full blood coverage for the township of Antioch by initiating the Dr. John J. Lorang Memorial Blood Drive.

The intent of this drive is to provide an adequate supply of blood for all Antioch Township residents. All non-resident donors and their families are also covered for a period of one year.

Blood must be available when and if needed. A reliable blood supply is assured only by the continuing donations of members of the community. Every day blood is needed to meet the ever increasing transfusion needs of patients in this area.

The community can meet these needs by residents participating in the Dr. John J. Lorang Memorial Blood Drive on Saturday, March 29, between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. at the Evangelical Free Church in Antioch.

To schedule an appointment call Dan Dreyer at 395-2900 or Ed Roach at 395-2700 from 9 - 5, or Art Brey at 395-8495 after 5 p.m.

The Dr. John J. Lorang Memorial Blood Replacement Program will cover any blood needs of all Antioch Township residents and any non-resident donors and their families. Anyone who has donated blood before Feb. 9, 1980 is eligible.

It is possible to donate even though medications are being taken. Examples of medications are: vitamins; hormones; thyroid pills; birth control pills; allergy medicine; others. Please allow the professional phlebotomists or your doctor to determine whether it is advisable for you to donate.

Eat normally before donating — fasting is not acceptable! Also, avoid consumption of alcohol for six hours before you donate.

By donating, you receive a free "mini-checkup". Checked at the drawing are Temperature, pulse rate, blood pressure, and the iron count of the blood.

When your blood is taken to the blood bank laboratory after donating, several tests are performed to insure that it can be safely administered to a patient. If, in the course of these tests, anything unusual is found, the donor will be notified so that steps may be taken to correct any problem that might exist.

A price tag cannot be put on the life of someone you love. Money, the best medical skills, and all the newest, most spectacular drugs sometimes are not enough to save a life without the gift of blood, which can only come from another human being.

The Blood Bank staff is working 24 hours a day to meet the medical and technical needs of the program.

Persons included in the Dr. John J. Lorang Memorial Blood Program are the Antioch Township resident (and non-resident donors), spouse, minor dependent children and children to the age of 25 who may be temporarily non-resident, blood dependent (those unable to give due to age or medical reasons), parents, parents-in-law, grandparents and grandparents-in-law. The program is in effect for these people no matter where they are in the United States at the time of transfusion.

Constructive entertainment will be provided for children while blood donations are being made. Students of Antioch High School's Child Care and Careers class will be providing the service. This will be in the nursery room adjoining the gymnasium where the blood drive is being conducted. When making an appointment for a donation, schedule the appointment as to how many children will need care.

Donations are applicable to family membership at the Jacob Blumberg Memorial Blood Bank. Membership renewals can be made on March 29.

The Jacob Blumberg Memorial Blood Bank of the Lake County Medical Society was established in 1951 through a grant from the Blumberg family. It is a not-for-profit community volunteer blood bank sponsored by the Lake County Medical Society. The Jacob Blumberg Memorial Blood Bank has been instrumental in meeting the blood needs of Lake County residents for the past 29 years.

One dead; three injured in collision

An Antioch man was killed when the car he was driving struck another car on Rte. 59 near Beach Grove Rd. on March 13.

Curtis Blunt of Rte. 1 in Antioch was pronounced dead at St. Therese Hospital after being assisted by Antioch paramedics at the scene of the accident. A passenger in the auto, Carol Blunt was taken to St. Therese where she is listed in fair condition.

The driver of the second auto, Martin Dschida, 22, and his passenger Gary Eslinger, 22, both of Antioch, were injured in the incident and taken to Victory Hospital.

According to Lake County Sheriff authorities, Dschida stated that the Blunt auto began fish-tailing while traveling south on Rte. 59. Officials also said that Dschida attempted to stop the car as the Blunt vehicle slid across the center line. The Blunt vehicle came to rest across both lanes of traffic headed in a westerly direction. Dschida's car spun and rested on the shoulder heading north.

The Blunt auto was extensively damaged, and no citations were issued.

Polley thanked the village for the support given them during the football season in which the Sequoits were class A semi-finalists. "The village provided us with great incentive," Plett said.

Mayor Haley in response noted, "You will find that the village of Antioch supports everything."

Fashionable fund raiser in making

Plans are in the making for the 1980 Emmons PTO Fashion Show to be held April 24 at Crescent Bay Landing in McHenry. The Theme for this year's show is a Fashion Affair.

Grego: first local artist featured at Antioch Savings

Antioch Savings and Loan has announced the beginning of a new program in which they will display the work of local artists and craftsmen in the lobby of the association.

A different artist will be featured each month, and to start the program, the paintings and drawings of Shirley Grego, a prominent artist from Antioch, will be on display through the thirty-first.

Ms. Grego, whose artwork

centers around architecture and landscapes, has won many awards at area art shows and fairs. Her work in water colors, pen and ink, oil pastels and acrylics, has over the years formed a pictorial history of Northeastern Illinois. She is a member of the Libertyville Art Center and teaches art at Emmons Grade School.

Thomas Kelly, President of the Antioch Savings and Loan, stated, "We have a lot of fine artistic people in the area, and a large part of the public is not aware of them. We're hoping that this program will serve to recognize these talented people and their accomplishments."

Other local artists and craftsmen who are interested in becoming part of the arts program at Antioch Savings and Loan may contact Laddie Korecek, Public Relations Director, 395-3030, for further information.
